AVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

body Can Tell When You Darken

Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at drug store for "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a bottle of this old-time recipe, day to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to hair and is splendid for deadroot, itching scalp and falling hair.

Well-known downtown druggist says body uses Weyth's Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so natural, and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use. You simply dampen a comb or brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By using the gray hair disappears; another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and is glossy, soft and abundant. Adv.

ENGINEMEN OPPOSE EFFICIENCY TESTS

Will Strike Unless Railroads Adopt High System, They Declare

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—Threats that the engine men would strike unless certain features of the efficiency test in the railways "safety first" campaign were eliminated were made today before the wage arbitration board by Warren S. Stone and William S. Carter, representing the men.

The witnesses today were C. T. Modenbach, El Reno, Okla., of the Rock Island road, C. B. Vance, running between Centralia and Cairo, Ill., on the Illinois Central; N. T. Hicks, Trinidad, Colo., of the Colorado & Southern; E. O. Livesey, Denison, Tex., of the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf; A. P. Jacoby of the Moberly division of the Wabash; C. P. Mohler, Bloomington, Ill., employed by the Chicago & Alton, and W. F. Stevens, Calgary, Alberta, of the Canadian Pacific. All are firemen.

The witnesses told generally of men laid off and promotion deferred by the event of heavy engines, of long hours and scant pay, the latter impaired by expense when away from home.

It appeared from the testimony that on the heaviest engines one fireman cannot do all the work required, and is assisted by the engineer. The men claim that on such engines an assistant fireman should be provided. It appeared also that violations of the 16-hour law are frequent.

The strike threat came when Stone and Carter both declared that they had been promised time and again that unfair tests would be eliminated but that the promises were disregarded.

"If the courts cannot protect us and the board cannot, the united strength of the men will," declared Carter. "The practices of which we complain are condemned by the rules of the railroads themselves, but they continue."

The men claim that the tests are made in such a way that they frighten the engine crew to a degree inimical to health and sometimes results in their leaping from their engines.

COLORADO CROP THIS YEAR MUCH LARGER THAN THE PRECEDING

ON THE FIRING LINE

What it means to most men

There are many true heroes that have perished in the European war who "never smelled powder," but who succumbed to sickness after hard campaigning—coupled with bad water and lack of food. The sick and debilitated man is as much out of place in his struggle for life and existence as he would be on the firing line. On the other hand the strong, vigorous man, his veins filled with rich, red blood, has an enormous advantage in whatever position he may be fated to occupy, in war or business.

The prompt and certain action of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in driving all harmful germs and impurities from the blood sets in motion the repair process which works actively on the diseased membrane where Catarrh flourishes unchecked or where the skin gives warning of the bad blood beneath by showing pimples and boils, also the skin clears up and becomes wholesome and ruddy.

Thus by building up a new and perfect covering and carrying out of the system the Catarrh infested matter by way of the blood, liver and kidneys, Catarrh is overcome and permanently conquered.

There is not a drop of alcohol or any narcotic in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, but in this safe vegetable remedy there is a mighty alternative power which by replacing the blood impurities with pure, rich blood, not only ends Catarrhal conditions wherever located, but vitalizes the kidneys, stomach, liver, bowels and every organ of the body. People who suffer humiliation and mental misery because of Pimples, Skin rash, Itchiness, Eruptions, Boils, Carbuncles, are especially benefited. It is not a secret remedy for its ingredients are printed on wrapper.

STRIKERS OPEN DEFENSE IN CANON CITY TRIAL

Striker-Deputy Sheriff Is First Witness Called; Tells of Efforts to Preserve Peace

CANON CITY, Dec. 21.—A deputy sheriff, although a striking miner, Tom Easton, was the first witness to take the stand in the trial of seven strikers for the alleged murder of William King, a mine guard, in the attack on the Chandler mine last April, at the opening of the defense today. Easton is one of the defendants.

Counsel for the defense announced in its opening statement it would endeavor to show that the guns purchased by the Fremont county miners were intended for self-defense.

Easton testified to having exercised his power as a deputy sheriff to prevent bloodshed and pillage when the defenders of the mine surrendered to the strikers. He told of the attack by strikers upon a party of Pueblo business men at Williamsburg April 26, the day following the attack on Chandler.

Easton's cross-examination was deferred until tomorrow after which witnesses testified to the excellency of character and reputation of Easton.

MEXICANS KILLED BY THE WHOLESALE

Many Executions Occur in Capital; Political Leaders Pay the Penalty

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 21.—Additional reports of wholesale executions of political offenders in the interior of Mexico reached the border today. Persons arriving from Mexico City, stated that 36 men had been killed at the national capital during the last week. Reliable reports from Chihuahua City said that 140 persons were killed there during the last month.

Many former federal army officers as well as Carranza supporters are named as having met their death. In most cases the killing is more accomplished by shootings in the streets, saloons, restaurants or private dwellings. Some days ago General Villa's troops took several prominent prisoners to a Chihuahua City from Mexico City, where they were captured. It is not known if they are murdered among the killed. Among them were General Miguel del Guado, a former federal commander and several other federal generals, Guillermo Terrazas of the landed Chihuahua family of that name and Castillo Baca, a rich resident of Torralba. Baca is reported as held for ransom together with Luis Terrazas, Jr. who has been detained at Chihuahua City several months.

Comment was made today to Consul T. D. Edwards against the imprisonment at Juarez of Albert Gonzales, said to be an American citizen. He was arrested on a charge of being a spy.

This is the week originally set for Bulger's execution which was stayed by an appeal to the state supreme court.

CHILE PROTESTS ACTION OF THE GERMAN NAVY

Violation of Neutrality is Alleged by South American Country in Protest

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—After a searching investigation of the activities of the German fleet in the southern Pacific recently, the government of Chile has made formal protest to Germany against alleged violations of neutrality by the German navy in Chilean waters. The protest transmitted by the Chilean minister at Berlin sets forth that the German ships, prior to their successful engagement with Rear Admiral Chadwick's British squadron, stayed as long as five days in one island owned by Chile and transferred supplies at another small island after a stay of seven days. The protest is understood to be couched in vigorous language, demanding reparation from Germany.

At the same time the Chilean government has protested to Great Britain, charging that the British cruiser Glasgow recently took mail from vessels in Chilean waters.

U. S. AND ENGLAND HAVE REACHED NO AGREEMENT

LONDON, Dec. 21.—It can be stated positively that no definite agreement has been reached whereby England will refrain from searching ships which leave American ports with statements from English consuls that they are carrying no contraband. England is willing to accept such statements in cases in which there is no reason to believe that the cargoes may have been augmented at sea. The long negotiations between England and America, however, have resulted in no positive agreement or understanding between the two countries.

LONDON THEATERS TO HOLD XMAS SERVICES

LONDON, Dec. 21.—In spite of the gloom which hangs over London at night and the general depression, as a result of the war, the more important London theaters will offer their Christmas pantomimes as usual, taking the position that children must not be robbed of their holiday treat because of the war.

Under the Jack and the Beanstalk, Sleeping Beauty and a number of other favorite fancies of childhood are to be revived at Christmas time with the same brilliancy as in past years.

Hotels which have not attempted to have dancing since the opening of the war, have also announced that they will resume the weekly Saturday evening dinner dances, in an effort to throw off the gloom which is settling over Europe.

Mourning is rapidly disappearing in London streets and shop windows are filled with black lace. Belgium and French visitors, who arrived all in mourning and few London hostesses are now adding mourning to their wardrobe, without discovering that the war has a self death grip on the families of many of their friends.

There, Gen. T. A. Morgan, who was recently promoted to the rank of major, says of his Christmas Eve: "They thoroughly enjoyed my dinner and I felt like a new man, clean and free. They are the best medicine I have ever taken for indigestion. They keep the stomach sweet, clear, active, healthy, regular. They calm the nerves, are stimulating in action, and neither grip nor sickens. They are wholesome and thoroughly cleansing, and keep the liver active. Stout people like them." BUDAPEST IS CARING WELL FOR WOUNDED

Correspondent Describes Scenes in Military Hospitals; All Well Kept

BUDAPEST, Dec. 16.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—To ease those upon whom the horrors of war are first visited, the Austro-Hungarian empire is exerting every effort. Today was the correspondent of the Associated Press visited two of the principal military hospitals of Budapest and found that everything needed to make the wounded comfortable and insure their recovery and physical well-being had been done. Whatever the advance in surgery and medicine has taught is being applied in these large establishments, one of which cares for over 1,000 and the other for over 1,500 wounded.

The inspection of the two hospitals was made under the auspices of Dr. Stefan Banya, lord mayor of Budapest. Later the correspondent visited the American Red Cross hospital, an establishment able to house about 200 wounded and just now caring for about 185. A number of the wounded who had arrived from our Galician front had been brought there.

In the operating room of the American Red Cross hospital a Russian soldier lay on the operation table. The man groaned. Dr. Charles MacDonald of the United States army stood at the head of the table and a nurse was putting the cheek of the Russian with a gloved hand.

No Hope for Soldier.

Elsewhere about the room stood four other American nurses and an Austrian orderly, all of them sad-faced, all of them expecting the man of the table was about to die.

"He is the Russian soldier who was brought here just now," explained Dr. MacDonald. "No hope, both feet fractured—amputation—gangrene, look!"

The man had a comparatively slight bullet wound in the fleshy part of the back, and, as Dr. MacDonald said, would have recovered easily, had he been given attention. But he had been left behind by his own and when the Austrians found him his lower limbs had been frozen.

"My children, my children," moaned the man, whose marvellous resistance against dissolution stood in strange contrast to the pallor of face and wasted body.

"You will see them again," said the nurse, softly.

"Very interesting case," said Dr. MacDonald. "Sorry his vitality is so low. He has only a few seconds, however."

For a moment the groans of the man grew louder. His eyes turned from one to another in mute but eloquent appeals for help, and the end, sudden, momentary.

"Poor fellow," said the Austrian orderly as he wheeled the body from the room.

Brighter Side of Story.

But there is a brighter side even to military hospitals. In other wards of the American Red Cross hospital the patients seemed happy enough. Most of them were eating their evening meal and many had progressed so rapidly that another portion of this or that was needed to appease their hunger.

Elsewhere men were sitting on their beds, playing cards or reading newspapers, and about the corridors strolled convalescents.

Budapest military hospitals are said to be marvels in hygiene and surgical efficiency. One of them is under the management of Dr. Jules Dollinger, of world-wide reputation. The establishments was organized and is being maintained at the expense of the city of Budapest, and its revenues are the plant of a large factory which was in-

Beds Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly

A Simple, Home-Made Remedy,
Prepared in 10 Minutes

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective cough remedy at a cost of only 54 cents or less. You could buy an almost ready-made cough medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never spoils. Full directions with Pinex.

The pinex, certainly, and ease with which the Pinex syrup overcomes a bad cough, chest or throat cold is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes a painful cough in a hurry. With persistent use, it stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in resin and sugar, and is well known for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., St. Wayne, Ind.

tended to manufacture electric fixtures for the municipality.

The second hospital was equipped, and the expenses of maintenance are being met, by the bankers of Hungary, and for this reason it is popularly known as the "Bankers' hospital." Over $600,000 kronen ($120,000) was spent in equipping the building, which, oddly enough, was also intended to be utilized for the manufacture of electric appliances. Dr. Wilhelm Manninger, who is well known in the United States and was a prominent figure of the international medical convention in New York last March, is the head of the establishment. So well organized is the hospital that within 30 seconds of his arrival a man can be placed under surgical care.

troops from the tropics suffer much from winter in Belgium

BRUSSELS, Dec. 21.—Troops from the tropics are suffering intensely from the cold in their positions in the Belgian trenches. This is especially true of the Senegalese. In many cases their toes and feet have been frozen so badly that amputations have been necessary.

Mrs. Harry Floyd, chief commissioner of the French wounded emergency fund, who has just returned from a visit to the French hospitals at Haze, Lomme, Bayeux, Douaillville and other places, tells of the suffering of the soldiers from the tropics. She says also that many of the hospitals are badly in need of anaesthetics, tetanus serum, surgical instruments and surgeons.

"In one hospital I saw Senegalese operated upon without the use of an anaesthetic," said Mrs. Floyd. "Their toes had been frozen and immediate amputation was necessary."

All the lines of one Senegalese were removed without a word from him. Suddenly he leaped from the operating table and began searching for something. The doctors and nurse could not discover what he wanted. He found a pipe, filled it and lay down, smoking it, holding the pipe. Then he began to cry in a low voice. Presently a nurse offered to bring him food to him, but he refused. He walked to the convalescent table where he ate with his friends.

The courage and heroism of these men is simply beyond belief. They never complain. They always urge the nurses to attend to others. But their sufferings are so real and acute are pitiful.

GERMANS CLAIMING IMPORTANT GAINS IN WESTERN BATTLE

BERLIN, Dec. 21.—The German war office today gave out a statement in which it is related that on December 19 German troops were successful at Nieport, occupied certain Anglo-Indian positions in Belgium and captured artillery and 20 prisoners and that trenches at Notre Dame de Lorette were retaken from the enemy.

Near Souain, the French reached some German trenches, but were driven off with a loss of 34 prisoners and many dead. An advantage was gained in the Argonne, and French attacks to the northwest of Verdun failed. This official statement quotes textually an order issued by General Joffre to the French forces, urging them to fresh endeavor to drive the German invaders from French territory.

The text of the communication follows:

"The French attacks yesterday at Nieport (Belgium) were repulsed. Between Richebourg L'Avoue and the canal of La Bassee we attacked the positions of the Anglo-Indian troops, stormed and captured their trenches and dislodged them from their positions with heavy losses. We captured one piece of artillery, five machine guns, two mine throwers and 25 Anglo-Indians, including officers. The trenches we lost to the enemy December 19 near Notre Dame de Lorette have been recaptured."

"In the neighborhood of Souain to the northeast of Chalons, French troops yesterday delivered a fierce attack. In one place they penetrated our own trenches, but their attack broke down under our fire. They left four officers and 30 men in our hands, and a large number of dead French troops were left on the ground in front of our position."

"In the Argonne we captured an important wooded hill at Le Four de Paris, three machine guns, one revolver and 25 prisoners."

"The French troops to the northeast of Verdun have failed completely. The great activity shown by the French along our entire front has been explained by an army order dated December 17 and signed by General Joffre, commander-in-chief of the French troops, which was found on a French officer. This order reads as follows:

"During these months the enemy has made a number of fierce attacks without being able to break through our line. Everywhere he has been victoriously repulsed. The moment now has arrived for us to make use of the weakness which he has shown. After having reinforced ourselves with men and material the hour of attack has arrived. We kept the German forces in check and it is now our business to clear the fatherland of the invaders."

"Soldiers. More than ever before France relies upon your courage and your desire to conquer at any cost. You already have been victorious on the Marne and on the Yser and Ypres in Lorraine and in the Vosges. You will know how to conquer until the final triumph."

"In the eastern arena of the war, the situation in West Prussia remains unchanged. In Poland we continue our attacks against the positions of the enemy."

CZESTOCHOWA MECCA OF THE SLAVONIANS

Thousands Make Pilgrimage Annually to Shrine of
'Black Madonna'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The National Geographic society gives the following description of Czestochowa, which has figured during the past few days in the campaign in Poland:

"Czestochowa, called by the Germans Czestochau, a city in Russian Poland, is one of the foremost meccas of the pilgrimage-going Slavonians. More than western Christians of what ever creed go to Jerusalem, more than Roman Catholics go to Rome or Protestants to Eisenach and Geneva, do the Slavonians, in particular, and the Russians take up the pilgrim's staff and wander to their holy places. These people of the north are akin to the people of India in that force of their religion which drives them from their homes on religious pilgrimage."

"Famed throughout Russia, Poland, and among the southern Slavonians, is the little city of Czestochowa, wherein is the shrine of the wonder-working Black Madonna, Mary a son and daughter of the dreary government-ridden Stepien and of bond-led Poland feels that he or she left a torn and hurried spirit of some physical infirmity before the magic of this painting."

"Czestochowa is gray in face and army in stirring history. It is a city on the southwestern Polish plateau, some 800 feet above sea level, of 72,000 inhabitants, capital of a county of the same name in the Russian-Polish government of Piotrkow, and it is situated about 12 miles from the German frontier at Lower Silesia. Czestochowa lies on the left bank of the Wartke, northwest of Cracow, and is an important station on the Warsaw-Cracow railway. It is 143 miles southwest of Warsaw."

Not Commercially Important.

"Commercially, the city is of no importance. Its business is mostly with the pilgrims, of whom more than 100,000 come to its shrine every year. They are a dozen or more factories in the place, manufacturing cotton and woolen stuffs, paper, leather and beer. More important is a publishing house which does a brisk business with the visitors in religious writings and sacred pictures. The sale of amulets, warding charms against each particular evil and against all evil is general. It is a significant part of the city's trade."

"The Black Madonna, sacred mystery picture, the source of Black Madonna worship among the Poles and Slavonians, is in itself and in its history, one of the most absorbing of paintings. It hangs in a chapel over the altar, veiled, except at the chief service twice each day, when it is shown. It is a picture of the Virgin and Child in express, wood, black-brown with age, adorned with purest gold and lavishly adorned with a fortune of costly jewels. According to tradition, it was painted by St. Luke, came into possession of St. Helena, passed an adventurous, beneficent time until brought by Prince Leo to Galletta, and was finally placed in the Pauline monastery at Czestochowa in 1382."

"The Pauline monastery, home of the wonderful painting, has been the center of Czestochowa's history. It stands, surrounded by a fortification wall, on the rugged and jagged, often promontory, which dominates the city. All through the monastery were added to, and every time, hostile armies came and went, it was besieged. At one time it was so wealthy that it is said to have owned or held in pledge one-fifth of all estates in Poland."

STATE COMMITTEE VISITS SCHOOL FOR DEAF AND BLIND

Inspects Buildings and Grounds and Hears Needs of Institution

Outlined

The state institution committee, authorized by the last legislature and appointed by Lieutenant Governor Fitzgerald to investigate and report on the condition of the several state institutions, visited the Colorado School for the Deaf and Blind in this city yesterday afternoon. Last night the committee went to Pueblo to inspect the state insane asylum.

Senator Helen King Robinson, chairman of the body, was unable to accompany the committee on the trip because of sickness. The other members are: Senator Leroy Williams, Central City; Representative Edward Dunklee, Denver; Hugh Taylor, Castle Rock, and Orlando West, Rocky Ford.

The committee made a thorough inspection of the buildings and grounds and heard the needs of the institution, as outlined by Dr. W. K. Argo, superintendent. The principal request was for a new dormitory building, to cost about $45,000, a request made in the annual report of the superintendent, which has been left to Governor-elect George A. Carlson.

The committee must report back to the legislature within 30 days after the next session convenes.

TWO WOMEN AND BABY HAVE NARROW ESCAPE IN BLAZE

Firemen Rescue Mrs. T. S. Uhlhorn and Mrs. Grace Gillis by Ladder

Route: Loss $125

Two women and a baby narrowly escaped being burned to death yesterday morning when the home of H. G. Bantley, 125 North Wabasha avenue, caught fire. The flames were extinguished by firemen, but the women and baby were in danger. Mrs. T. S. Uhlhorn, sister of Mrs. Bantley, and Mrs. Grace Gillis, who were in the house, were rescued by firemen using a ladder from a bedroom in the second story.

The loss to the building and contents is estimated at $125, covered by insurance. No one was injured.

Spencer Penrose (See)
Better Business in Colorado and the West

Business conditions throughout the country are rapidly improving, in the opinion of Spencer Penrose, who returned to Colorado Springs yesterday from a month's trip in the east. He said Colorado has a far better reputation in the east now than some months ago and prophesied that 1915 will witness a return to great prosperity to the state.

"The prospects for copper are much better," he said. "The consumption now exceeds the demand and provisions have been made for shipping the product to neutral countries."

The first letters received since the beginning of the war from their daughter, Gladys, the Countess Cornet, who is in Brussels, awaited them here. She stated that she was in good health and safe.

Lame back may come from overwork, cold, settled in the muscles of the back, or from disease. In the two former cases the right remedy is BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It should be rubbed in thoroughly over the affected part, the relief will be prompt and satisfactory. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co. Adv.

REHEARSE CHRISTMAS CAROLS TOMORROW

Expect Choir of 250 to Sing at Municipal Gathering Thursday Night

Rehearsal of the Christmas carols that will be sung at the municipal Christmas tree gathering Thursday night, will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at Perkins hall, under the direction of Wilhelm Schmidt. Those who are interested are requested to be present at that time, as the committee hopes to have a choir of more than 250 voices. The Christmas carols, in which the public will be asked to join, will be as follows: "Joy to the World," "Little Star of Bethlehem," "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "The First Noel," "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," "Silent Night," "God Rest You, Merry Gentlemen" and "America." Two choruses will furnish the music at the Christmas tree singing.

Mrs. Prescott Leonard, who is in charge of the plan, announced yesterday that the singing will begin at 8:30 o'clock, Thursday evening. The big tree will be cut tomorrow at Glen Eyrie. It will be 30 feet high and the largest ever brought into Colorado Springs. The wiring and electrical work will be done by the Bury Electric company.

This Child Wants a Sanitary Santa Claus

There is one house in Colorado Springs where Santa Claus will be greeted with something more than enthusiasm, for a wash bowl, rag and a bar of soap will be left at the bottom of a chimney, according to a Santa letter received yesterday by the Associated Charities. The letter follows: "Dear, Dear Santa: 'I would like a sled and a couple of night gowns, if you haven't given them all to the Belgians. I would like a doll, double jointed. I will put a bowl of water, a wash rag and a bar of soap and a towel ready for you to wash as we have a chimney place here, in case you might get dirty coming down through the soot.'

Many Recoveries From Lung Trouble

Eckman's Alternative has restored to health many sufferers from lung trouble. Read what it did in this case:—
Wilmington, Del.
"Gentlemen:—In January, 1908, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, a leading practitioner, said that it was lung trouble. I got very weak. C. A. Lippincott, of Lippincott's Department Store, Wilmington, Del., recommended Eckman's Alternative that had done great good. I began taking it at once. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life." There are 19 springs at Carlsbad. Two are cold springs and 17 are hot springs. The water of these range in temperature from 107.7 to 164 degrees. In 1,000 parts of Sprudel water there are sulphate of soda, 2.405 parts; bicarbonate of soda, 1.238; chloride of soda, 1.042; sulphate of potash, .486; bicarbonate of magnesia, .165; bicarbonate of lithia, .012; and carbonic acid gas, .966. It is a carbonated alkaline saline water. It contains no sulphurated hydrogen gas.

OPERA HOUSE VAUDEVILLE

The Marcus Loew vaudeville show which comes to the Opera house Thursday and Friday of this week is one of the best balanced shows yet booked here by this popular circuit. As a holiday attraction it should receive very hearty support from local theatergoers. It being a clean, refined aggregation of well-known acts. Grace DeWintress, the ventriloquist extraordinary, occupies the headline position with a new act that is always a scream. Her unusual ability in this line of entertainment is well and favorably known to all. Harry Thomson, an old-time comedian with an original monologue, "Scenes in Night Court," is a sure comedy hit. The cyclone McNutts, a family of five, present a neat artistic act that is sure to prove a winner. Ethel and Lucy, just two girls in dainty songs and dances, are two very charming young ladies with a repertoire of late song hits and society dances. Their costumes represent the latest in clothes. Leighton and Robinson, the song-writing comedians, do a dark face act which enables them to time on any circuit. The usual high class musical pictures, including the Palace group, will be shown at every performance. Seats are now on sale for all performances.

avorably known to all. Harry Thomson, an old-time comedian with an original monologue, "Scenes in Night Court," is a sure comedy hit. The cyclone McNutts, a family of five, present a neat artistic act that is sure to prove a winner. Ethel and Lucy, just two girls in dainty songs and dances, are two very charming young ladies with a repertoire of late song hits and society dances. Their costumes represent the latest in clothes. THE PANTHER

At the Empress today the two-act "The Panther," an exciting romance of the Canadian frontier, is the stellar attraction. A review of this feature taken from the Motion Picture World issued December 18, states as follows: "The Panther" (Glasgow, Dec. 18).—A strong two-act offering of the Canadian woods, with Walter Edwards appearing as the brutal factor known as the panther. The story is a lurid romance in its intensity, and this could have been toned down somewhat without injuring its strength. Yet it is a picture of the open country, where flopping, fighting and killing are expected. An appealing love story is interpolated, Leslie Glavin being the girl and Frank Morgan the young man. The scenes are in keeping with the rugged character of the tale. A strongly dramatic offering.

"The Best of the Year" a Holbach two-act feature is also on the bill. This is a newspaper story, telling how a city reporter solved a puzzling mystery where others failed. It is a strong dramatic incident in the life work of almost any reporter on a metropolitan newspaper. A good reporter with a nose for news is often more successful in unraveling mysterious incidents than a whole flock of detectives. The story, in the hands of Eugene Patterson, Sam De Grasse and Francis Billington, is exceptionally well done and is more than worth while.

"Hogan's Annual Spree" a Keystone comedy with Charlie Murray, late of Murray and Mack, is a scream of delight. A laugh provoking, rib-tickling, humorous farce that is not only amusing but is a scream. Don't miss today's show. It has the gripping intensity of dramatic values as well as the effectiveness of joy and laughter.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

The Red Cross players will be the third number in the star concert, coming January 15 in the Burns theater. The members of the boys department are asking Santa Claus to remember them on Christmas. A Victoria together with a number of records is desired. Good books are also on the request list.

Next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. lobby, Judge J. L. Berry of Denver will give his address entitled, "An Eulogy on the Bible." Ad of the gospel teams of the city are requested to be present at this service.

The annual New Years reception will be given this year in the Y. M. C. A. building by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. at which time the building will be open to everybody and refreshments will be served.

The new steel lockers for the boys department have arrived and now are being put in place for the use of that department. This is a much needed improvement over the old wooden lockers formerly used. All members who have not secured a locker should make request of the secretary at once.

ELKS CHRISTMAS DANCE TO BE ELABORATE AFFAIR

Extensive arrangements are being made by a committee of the local Elks lodge No. 26 for the annual Christmas dance which will be given at the Elk home Christmas night. Pink's orchestra of elite pieces will furnish the music and dancing will be in order from 8 o'clock to 12 o'clock. After the dancing is over, will be served. Entertainment will be obtained from members of the committee in charge.

 CLEAN THE CROSS-WALKS

THE repeated warnings of the Chief of Police as to the enforcement of the ordinance requiring the removal of snow from the sidewalks are having a good effect, even though the snow flurries have been so continuous recently that repeated sweeping and shoveling was necessary. But this suggests another phase of the matter no less important—that of the street crossings. There are several hundred street intersections in Colorado Springs, and we are aware that all the resources of the street department, if multiplied several times, would be insufficient to keep all of the crosswalks clean. But in the business district and in the more thickly populated residential sections the work certainly should not be neglected. At least two of the crossings at each intersection—one running each way—ought to be shoveled off after each snow fall, and the matter is important enough to justify the expenditure of a little extra money if present funds are insufficient.

Incidentally, this is a time for teamsters and owners of horses to see that their animals are properly shod. A smooth shod horse on an icy pavement is almost helpless and liable to sustain dangerous falls. Moreover, there is a big loss of working energy, for if a horse is improperly shod all of its strength is exerted to keep on its feet on an icy pavement. If you are driving a horse nowadays take him around to a blacksmith shop and fit him up with a new set of tire chains.

SHOPPING MADE EASY

TO MANY of the Christmas shoppers who have finished, or are now finishing, their holiday purchases, the thought must have occurred that Colorado Springs is peculiarly fortunate in having so many up-to-date stores worthy of comparison with the best in cities two or three times its size. To millions of people all over the country, living in towns and small cities, the holiday shopping problem is intensified by their inability to find what they want at home. They must be content with inferior articles, or else send to a mail order house, an alternative which has disadvantages of its own. And this is often true even in places the size of Colorado Springs.

But it is different here. Our visitors comment on the unusually high character of the retail stores, the completeness and up-to-dateness of the stocks displayed, and the fairness of the prices. Years ago people used to go to Denver for holiday shopping, but whoever does so now is merely out his traveling expenses, for there is no saving in prices to be effected, nor can better lines of goods be found there.

This fact has been recognized by countless thousands of tourists who come here every summer from small towns throughout the Middle West and South, and it produces a considerable effect on the volume of retail business here, especially in the clothing and dry goods lines. For instance, dealers in both men's and women's wear have their fall and winter goods shipped in midsummer, instead of in early fall, as is done elsewhere. The tourists take advantage of the opportunity to supply themselves with winter clothing of better quality and at lower prices than they could get at home, and the result is a trade which amounts to many thousands of dollars to local merchants each summer.

The high standards of merchandising in Colorado Springs deserve the cordial support of the entire public. Patronage of mail order houses usually results in disappointment, for it involves delay and uncertainty. Instead of sending your money away to a concern that you do not know, for goods that you cannot see, go to a local store and buy something better at a lower price.

ONE TRIPLING DIFFICULTY

FORMER President Taft, in a published letter to President E. E. Rittenhouse of the Life Extension Institute, makes this observation:

A recent medical writer, Dr. Huber, states that five out of six applicants are rejected by the army, and that he and his colleagues personally rejected 1,000 out of 1,400 applicants to enter the army during the Philippine war. When war comes to the United States it must be fought not so much by the picked young men who constitute our regular army but to a very large extent by the rank and file of our population. The work of the Life Extension Institute has already shown that physical impairment is alarmingly prevalent, while at the same time, much of it is preventable or curable.

A few days ago Secretary Bryan declared that if war threatened our country the President could call for a million volunteers at sunrise, and when the sun set he would have them. This statement, like most of the grape juice statesman's utterances, is important only in so far as it shows his utter want of comprehension of public questions. But it is interesting in connection with what Mr. Taft says as to the percentage of volunteers rejected.

It is well known that our army and navy departments require applicants for enlistment in either branch of the service to measure up to a high physical standard. They do not expect physical perfection, but there are certain requirements as to height, weight, etc., which must be met to insure efficiency in service, and of course a great many of the applicants are rejected.

But probably even the omniscient Bryan did not know that five out of six applicants are rejected by the army for this reason. What would become of his "million men in arms" enlisted between sunrise and sunset, when subjected to this test? They would melt away like all other silver creations of his brain, from free silver down to universal peace.

It is another illustration of the utter impracticability of the theories of the peace visionaries. It is on a plane with Mr. Carnegie's delightful proposal that in the event of a foreign invasion by an army of one million men, we should let them go on their way unopposed until they were well in the interior, then "surround them with one hundred thousand volunteer sharpshooters and force their surrender."

It really is amazing to see how people who are otherwise normal will give heed to this sort of drivel when it emanates from a man of prominence. Bryan discussing national defense is like Bryan discussing anything else—persistently wrongheaded, fanatical and ignorant. And yet he still has his following. For instance, observe today's Open Parliament.

OPEN PARLIAMENT

[An letter intended for the Open Parliament must bear the name and address of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but as an evidence of good faith. Confidential letters will not be published without the signature of the writer. Communications for this department should be limited to 100 words and should be free from personalities. Religious controversies cannot be conducted in this column.]

BRYAN.
 To the Editor of The Gazette.
 In the Open Parliament column of Friday we notice a short citation, introduced no doubt as a criticism of our secretary of state and noted statesman, Mr. Bryan.

Whether this spasmodic attack on the part of the writer came from unclassified combustion or premature judgment we are unable to tell without more specific diagnosis, but of course it does not matter as the majority of readers will view it as a link in the long chain of evidence that the hammer is still working, though somewhat muffled. I believe that Mr. Bryan's assertion that a call for 1,000,000 men would be responded to between sunrise and sunset is mild. I further believe if the cause was vital and the call urgent Colorado Springs and suburbs would raise 500 and this would mean a pro rata of considerable over 1,000,000.

G. W. GARNER.
 Colorado Springs, Dec. 21.

FROM OTHER PERS

NOW UP TO THE RAILROADS

The largest single order for the resumption of business, not on a normal but a supernormal scale, was given by the Interstate Commerce Commission when it granted the application of the eastern railroads for an increase in rates. It is to be presumed that the western roads, which are to press their application, will be granted the increase. The decision ought to, and if the railroads make good will reach further in industrial and commerce than any other impulse in business. The railroads have said that restricted earnings and lack of capital held them back. They wanted to buy, but did not have the money. If they were given this decision releases them. It makes purchases of them. It sends them to the mills. It enables their work of construction and equipment to proceed. It means fire in dead furnaces, employment for idle men. It is tonic for the whole situation.

As the Tribune repeatedly has said in urging that the rate increase be recognized as wise, the war changed conditions but left the railroads unable to meet them. Of all the industries affected by change this transportation industry alone was unable to make adjustments, because government regulation had tied it up.

Regulation to justify itself has to be intelligent. It cannot always be restrictive. It must at times be helpful. Intelligent restriction did not oppose the application for increase, knowing that their prosperity could not be built securely on excessive industrial conditions and that secure industrial conditions cannot exist with the most important industry in the country crippled.

The alternative before the Interstate Commerce Commission was to deny the application and leave the railroads completely if not paralyzed. That alternative has not been adopted and it is to the country's benefit that it has not.

If the railroads can proceed with their work the effects of their activity will be felt in innumerable able quarters by innumerable men. It ought to mean and we believe it will, the establishment of a prosperity beyond the touch of psychological depression.

The elements of great national well being are in this productive and peaceful land. The tremendous volume of exports and the demands from abroad upon our factories must result soon in the fattening of our trade and industry.

Add to this the encouragement given the greatest industry, that of breadmaking, and it is difficult to see how anything but a supernormal condition of prosperity can result if the railroads make good.

A NEWSPAPER DUTY

From the New York World.
 What the World has had to say of diplomacy in the dark has more than demanded application. There are newspapers in Great Britain, France and Germany which, in the face of the most brutal war of all history, are discussing as freely as they may the same subject.

The probability is that if the plain people of the great nations of Europe had been informed as to their international relations the present conflict would have been avoided. No doubt Kaiser, czar and kings, race hatreds, colonial policies, commercial expansion and its attendant jealousies, violated treaties, old reventures and an all-pervading militarism have had their part in bringing upon the earth slaughter and devastation; but more directly responsible than any or all of them has been the censorship which when not secret has been false.

This is why the World insists that the ghastly mummery of the American state department should come to an end. With war of every hand, with war threatened at our own doors, with civilization reeling under the shock of war that came like a thief in the night, we are pursuing the tragic methods of Europe almost without protest.

If the American press does not awaken to this danger it is to be charged with a colossal failure. The question is not one of locality or party or persons. It is world-wide in its application, but in its future aspects it concerns us more than any other great people on earth.

There is enough newspaper energy in this country to force publicity upon the state department. There is enough intelligence in this country to pass upon our foreign relations soberly and justly. Europe is drenched in blood, loaded with debt and stricken with sorrow because practically nobody knew the awful abyss to which a few secretive men were driving it. The same may be said of America one day if we do not heed the lesson.

CAUSE FOR LAUGHTER.

From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.
 A Cincinnati man drank 100 glasses of beer a day for a long time has lost his memory. How Milwaukee will laugh at this display of heroism.

THE EXCEPTION.

From the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.
 "Let us show the Europeans," urges an enthusiastic editor, "that we in America can make everything they do." Except war.

MUCH MORE SO.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.
 Judge Gary says the European war is merely a matter of dollars and cents, but at it seems to be more a matter of dollars than sense.

GUILELESS.

From the Boston Globe.
 The citizen who wrote to the mayor of Milwaukee to ask if it is true that beer is piped through street mains into all the houses there must be a lovely man to tell interesting stories to.

OH, THE PITY OF IT.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.
 A Washington man has shaken hands with 20 presidents, but the sad part is that not one of them ever offered him a job.

LOCATED AT LAST.

From the Philadelphia Ledger.
 At last that operation known as a work of supererogation has been located. It is the suit of Uncle Sam to dissolve the "drip trust."

PLENTY DROPPED THERE.

From the Milwaukee Sentinel.
 After the coal war is over there ought to be some profitable lead mining in some of those European countries.

SATISFACTORY.

From the Columbus, O. Journal.
 Opinions differ widely as to what constitutes true contentment, but watching other people work certainly imparts a quiet satisfaction to the soul.

NO DANGER.

From the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.
 A peace congress is to be held at the San Francisco exposition, but don't be alarmed. A regiment of United States troops will be on guard.

A Christmas Quandary

BY RUTH CAMERON

A point of Christmas etiquette is bothering one of my letter friends, and she wants me to help her settle it.
 It seems that a friend with whom she has hitherto exchanged Christmas gifts has written her a little note, telling her that she is obliged to curtail her Christmas giving on account of illness, and asking that her friend will help her out by omitting her gift this time. My letter friend's quandary is this: "I don't like the idea that Christmas gifts are just an exchange. If I assent to her plan and do not give her anything this year, that will look as if it had always been a kind of barter to me. I would rather give her something this year without letting her know before-hand that I am going to do it and drop the thing next year. It seems less calculating to me. Don't you think this is the best way out?"

Frankly, my friend, I don't. But yourself in her place. She wants you to relieve her from the embarrassment of having nothing to give you by not giving her anything. If you give her something you force that embarrassment upon her. With the pleasure of receiving what you have to give, she will feel at what you have to give. Probably not. Then, is it generous, is it worthy of the spirit of Christmas to put your dislike of the thought of barter above her sense of humiliation at receiving without giving?
 Perhaps it might show a flimsy spirit in her to be above that sense of humiliation, but few of us have reached the happy height where we can give or receive according to the position in which we happen to be placed, and be equally dignified and graceful and content in either position.
 And if you really dislike that sense of barter and really want to give your friend some material symbol of your affection, why not let it be just the same, even if you do not give it at Christmas, which has become so emphatically the day of reciprocal gift giving?
 Why not send your gift earlier or St. Valentine's day? Or why wait for any special day? There are 365 days every year when the spontaneously offered gifts of a friend are welcome. Indeed, I think the gifts that come unexpectedly are rather more delightful than the formal kind. To have the postman bring some totally unexpected little package lights up a whole day with the pleasure of the surprise and the warm sense of kindly feeling behind it.

BY DR. ISAAC DUNN
 No. 1. THE CHRISTMAS TREE

The Christmas tree is the largest indoor plant. If properly raised in a stout dry goods box it often attains a height of 20 feet and an age of several days.
 The Christmas tree looks like a pine but it isn't. It is a fruit tree and produces the most valuable crops known. A single tree has been known to bear at one time two bushels of popcorn, a peck of apples, five pounds of candles, nine large dolls, a half dozen hobby horses and a wagon load of miscellaneous plunder. Harvesting the Christmas trees is the favorite of all children's games and paying for the seed is the principal January job.

"Harvesting the Christmas tree is the favorite of all children's games."

The Christmas tree grows luxuriantly in any land which has a church bell. Millions of them bloom and ripen their crops each Christmas eve in this country. It takes nature about 10 years to bring a Christmas tree to the bearing age, but man can shake a crop off of it in 15 minutes and chop it up for stove wood afterward in 15 more. A whole lot of our disappearing forests have disappeared into the happy homes of the nation about Christmas time, but nobody seems to care conservation when 10,000,000 children are shrieking for joy.

The Christmas tree will grow in any land, but the conditions have to be just right. It will flourish in a desert or a flood, on a mountain top above the timber line or in a cellar where even the rats are underfed, but it requires a very particular atmosphere. Selfishness is very hard on Christmas trees. They wither under it like dandelions under a load of salt. If a husband and father is too lazy to exert himself for others now and then, or a mother is too deeply immersed in the study of compound bridge to devote a few days a year to unprofitable toil for someone else also, the Christmas tree stands a very little show.

Hatred and malice and a lack of imagination are also very hard upon this peculiar tree. It may be tended by an expert forester and grow with phenomenal rapidity, but unless it can get into a home full of joy and generosity and painstaking thoughtfulness it simply declines to bloom. You can heap gold coins about a Christmas tree until its branches are hidden, but it will remain bare and dejected until some little child comes along and sets all the atmosphere in that house aquiver with emotions which are not found in books, bank accounts or temples of piety.

Christmas trees cost a great deal to bring to perfection and are not financially a profitable investment. We Americans blow in millions on them each year which would otherwise bring in six per cent from perfectly good mortgages. But the Christmas tree has blossomed so much better for months afterwards that a soul finds it very hard to sicken there.

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

Christmas, Merry Christmas, is now drawing near. The happiest time in each passing year. We can almost hear the angels again saying, "Peace upon earth, good will unto men; And down through the ages the voices still ring, 'Glory to God, our Savior, our King.'"

Shepherds of Judea followed Bethlehem's star, And so did the wise men who came from afar. To the place in the stable where the sweet baby lay, Wrapped in swaddling clothes, in a manger full of hay.

Presently they brought him of myrrh, frankincense and gold; Oh, the beautiful story never grows old.

Now now unto him gifts we shall give, By giving to those who in sorrow may be pained.

"Bless the sick, clothe the naked, feed the hungry," said he; "When to these ye have done it, ye have done it to me."

Give as to a brother, let Love do her part, For love is the sunshine that warms up the heart.

As the Santa Claus spirit is passing around, May no empty stockings in our city be found.

As the good time is coming, let us give with a good work, too, To make it the best the world ever knew.

And the angels in heaven shall say it again, "Peace upon earth, good will unto men."

—Edith C. Rouse.

CHRISTMAS BELLS

Ring out! Oh bells, with clarion chime, Ring merrily out, for see This is the happy Christmas time! Praise Christ's nativity!

The "Peace on earth," Ah! could it be, "Good will to men," its complement, Heralds of joy we look to thee To bring us both, and sweet content.

Ring merrily then—to all, Good cheer! With peen of praise, our joy we share, Our Christ does live, our Christ is here, This is our glory, this our theme!"

Robinson's thermometer recorded a rise of 45 degrees in half an hour during the evening.

The members of Company A presented Lieutenant Saxton with a silver watch and gold chain as an evidence of their esteem and friendship.

HOW CAN I STAND THE STRAIN?

Probably a good many people, particularly those who work in stores, are wondering if they can stand the strain until Christmas. While that is not a profitable speculation, something can be gained by planning with a view of getting through with the least tire possible.

The most frequent complaint, I am sure, is of the feet. Above everything else, the salesgirl should wear easy shoes between now and Christmas. The fact that a pair of shoes is easy should outweigh every other consideration. While low heels are easier than high ones, no rapid change should be made in the height of the heel. When the heel is worn high the weight is pitched forward on the ball of the foot and the ankle is bent downward. This is an unnatural position; but in time the length of the muscles, and tendons leading from the calf to the foot become adjusted to it.

To suddenly lessen the length of the heel fires these muscles unduly and brings about cramps in the legs. Something is gained by seeing to it that the feet of the stockings fit well. To change the stocking often is worth while, even if it means washing out stockings at night. A hole in a stocking increases one's fatigue materially. The feet should be washed in warm water each night. To use some alcohol, diluted ammonia, witch hazel, or dilute perfume vinegar on the feet is very agreeable to most people and helps somewhat. While the cost of the advertised foot ointment is considerably higher than that of the chemicals named above, they are no more efficient or agreeable. Massaging the feet will help.

To get restful sleep a well ventilated room is a necessity. The best ventilation is that in which a current of fresh air plays over the face. At the same time, unless the bed is warm enough, sleep is not restful. A feeling of cold, just short of enough to awaken, keeps the mind on edge and robs sleep of its benefits.

A bed may feel cold because the mattress is not thick enough. A layer of paper between mattresses, or between mattress and the slats makes the bed warmer. A layer of paper between the blankets adds to comfort without adding to weight.

A warm bath at night is very restful, especially for the wakefulness of over-fatigue. It is worth the time and trouble.

To make Sunday a day of rest will prove a good investment. Dressing up and going around dressed up uses energy.

HEATING AND THE ITCH.
 W. K. F. writes: "Some time ago you stated that for less than $1 you could fix your radiator so that it keeps up the humidity, and you stated that the lack of humidity is the trouble that causes the winter itch. Will you kindly inform me how you do it and so very much oblige one who is very sorely troubled with the said complaint, as soon as I start my furnace? I have a side water tank in my hot air furnace that evaporates a painful in about every two days, but does not stop my itching."

REPLY.
 The device referred to was a wood wheel valve to be attached to a steam radiator. The moisture from a half pailful of water a day will normally increase the humidity of your house, certainly not enough to cure the itch.

Have an evaporator built in the hot air chamber of your furnace. Evaporate from five to 15 gallons of water a day, according to the size of your house. Keep the temperature under 70 and the humidity over 50 and you will not have the itch.

HAS LEAKY HEART VALVE.
 A. L. C. writes: "I am a young man troubled with a 'leaky heart valve.' My heart makes around 85 beats a minute when normal—is it harmful to take moderate exercise each day? Could you tell me where I could obtain that book entitled, 'Gymnastical Exercises for Heart Affections?'"

REPLY.
 Instead of being harmful, carefully regulated exercise is necessary for a person with a leaky valve, much more so than for a person with a sound heart. But do not exercise enough or too much.

COMMISSION FOR CONSERVATION OF RESOURCES URGED

Leaders Confer With President, but Definite Action
Is Postponed

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21—Senator Newlands' plan, generally approved by the president and the interdepartmental committee of the cabinet for a commission to direct all federal waterway control and improvements, was the subject of an extended conference at the White House tonight.

Whether the plan or any portion of it should be pressed at this session of congress was considered but left undecided, the question to be taken up again at a date not yet fixed. Reports were made by cabinet officers on their investigation of the subject, and Secretary Lane announced their approval of the general scheme for a commission which would have authority over questions relating to development, improvement, regulation and control of navigation as a part of interstate and foreign commerce and related questions of irrigation, forestry, fisheries, swamp land reclamation, clarification of streams, wood regulation and power utilization.

Conferring with the president were Secretaries Garrison, Redfield, Lane and Houston, Senator Newlands and George H. Maxwell of Chicago, executive chairman of the National Irrigation association.

Whether, owing to the shortness of this session of congress any effort should be made to press the measure immediately was left to be determined.
It had been contemplated that an amendment should be submitted in the senate to the rivers and harbors appropriation bill providing for the organization of the commission to investigate and initiate the broad waterway scheme outlined.

Such an amendment was defeated when the big rivers and harbors appropriation bill was blocked at the last session after the filibuster. It is not proposed that an amendment at this session, it introduced, would include provision for the details of the scheme, or the appropriations for the work,
which, according to the Newlands bill, would amount to $40,000,000 a year for 10 years, or a total of $400,000,000.

FIRE LADDIES PASS HAT FOR XMAS FUND

Check From Santa Is Also Aids to Contributions for Kiddies

He came into The Gazette office yesterday and handed over for the Santa Claus man.
His name is not necessary to the telling of this tale,
but he wore the blue uniform and cap
of a city fireman.

"Here," he said, when the Santa Claus man greeted him, "is a little contribution to your Christmas fund."
He reached into his pocket, drew out a generous handful of silver and dropped it into the palm of Santa's lieutenant. "Wish it was more," said the man in blue, "but I'll help make Christmas a little brighter for some of those kiddies and poor families we've been reading about. The boys talked it over down at the station this morning and we passed the hat so that all could chip in, then they sent me up here to present it with their compliments."

But the fire laddies down at the central station were not the only ones to make the Santa Claus man feel mighty good yesterday for others dropped into the office and left contributions to the Christmas fund—dimes, quarters, half dollars and an occasional dollar and a donation or two came through the mail. And it may be said right here that the smallest contribution to the Santa Claus fund is appreciated just as sincerely as the larger ones.

Then there was a letter from "The Bishop's Ranch," Santa Fe, N. M., and it, too, contained a check—a check that made the Santa Claus man look twice—and the request that it be used to make some homes a little bit happier on Christmas day. The letter was from Mrs. Constance Elmle, formerly Miss Constance Pulitzer of this city. Although hundreds of miles away, she has read of The Gazette's plan to help Santy and forwarded her check by return mail.

Good Day for Santy.
And so, altogether, yesterday was a good day for Santy's man, and whatever fear he may have had that all the requests couldn't be answered has almost disappeared. Another day like yesterday and every one of the 365 letters will be answered, although there are still a few that have not been set down in the taken-care-of column. To date the list looks something like this:
Shoes, 50 pairs; stockings, 50 pairs;
mittens, 50 pairs; fuel, 10 families;
baskets of food for 15 families—to say nothing of cans, dolls, toys, candy, apples, oranges and nuts. And here is one more request from a little girl 8 years old, who we shall call Mary Her-letter was received yesterday and read:

"Dear Santy—Will you please bring me a Bible and an election book and a little candy. I will go to bed early on Christmas eve. P. S.—I will leave the door unlocked."

ARKANSAS LAW TAKES PREFERENCE OVER CREEK

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21—The supreme court held today that land allocated to enrolled Creek Indians who died before they received their allotments, is governed by Arkansas law and not according to the laws of descent of the Creek nation. The case involved the allotment to a Creek named Ellis Grayson. Under the Creek law, Grayson's maternal aunt would have taken the land. Under the Arkansas statute the son, an aunt on the paternal side gets the property.

BRITISH CAPTURE GERMAN STEAMERS

LONDON, Dec. 22—(Tuesday)—It is announced that British warships have captured near the Falkland Islands two German-owned steamers which were acting as storeships to the German ships. They were the Baden and Santa Isabel, both flying the flag of the Hamburg-American line.

DETROIT "ADULT NEWSIES" SELL $2,200 WORTH PAPERS

DETROIT, Dec. 21—Business and professional men—all of whom once were newsboys—sold papers on the city streets today. Nearly $2,200 was collected, and the fund will be devoted to Christmas charity. More than 70 well-known citizens energetically piled their trade. Papers brought sums ranging from a widow's mite to checks for $60

Plum Puddings and Fruit Cake

Oh the royal flavor the unusual richness and deliciousness of Burgess Fruit Cake and Plum Pudding! The pudding is light and fluffy, not a bit soggy, and the cake has really a lot more fruit than flour in it.

Each piece of fruit is washed, seeded and cleaned, and every effort made to give you the finest of Christmas puddings and cakes.

NOTE: We close Friday all day. We'll be very busy this week, and we will appreciate your heavy orders today or tomorrow.
